LIBERAL PARTY WILL BE FOURTH; 48'ERS BACK IT

CHICAGO, July 16.—Members of the Committee of Forty-eight who met at the Hotel Morrison this morning decided to launch a fourth party movement to be known as the Liberal Party.

A meeting last night to launch a ticket with Senator La Follette's name at the head finally agreed more time was necessary.

Allen McCurdy of New York, Arthur Wray of Nebraska and Dean Robert M. Lovett of the University of Chicago, started a petition calling for the formation among the Forty-eighters and other groups of "the Liberal party." There were about 100 signers and they composed the group that confers today.

The Farmer-Labor party which adopted what is termed "too radical a platform for La Follette to stand on," is declared today to have lost support of the World War Veterans, many of the Non-Partisan League, and American Constitutional Party beside the Single Taxers.

The American Constitutional Party, organized in New York, left the so-called "amalgamated" convention when Edward T. O'Loughlin made this announcement:

"We are through. We will go ahead with our plans, perfect our organization and probably will call a national convention within the next few weeks."

The withdrawal, either formally or in individual subsequent announcements of these elements is declared to leave the new party a mere organization of the National Labor Party with radicals.

Earthquakes, Followed By Fires, Hit Los Angeles

tunnel. A fire alarm was turned in, but the damage was reported to be trifling.

The Emergency hospital began receiving calls for the ambulance shortly after the second and third quakes subsided. Four more persons, making a total of eight injured thus far, were taken to the hospital suffering from minor cuts and bruises sustained from falling brick and flying glass.

Business in many establishments came practically to a standstill after the third shock and 30 minutes later crowds still were gathered in the streets, either fearful of returning to work or interested in leaning the extent of the damage.

Four persons are known to have been injured, with several others unreported, and considerable minor damage was done to property here, as the result of the first earthquake which rocked Los Angeles about 10:05 this morning.

The injured sustained minor hurts from falling chimneys and broken glass. The injured are:

KATHRYN VARNEDOE, age 11 years; struck on the head by a small piece of brick which fell from a roof gutter.

MRS. EMMA RYAN, age 45; lacerations; fainting and fell on broken glass.

MRS. FANNIE PINKS, 35, of San Diego; sprained left ankle; falling down stairs while running from the house.

MRS. NETTIE SNYDER; treated for bruises and hysteria; hit by falling brick.

BURBANK THEATER

Hundreds of buildings here were rocked, and many were damaged, and thousands of people were frightened from the Forty-eighters and other groups annexed.

Pasadena, about ten miles northeast of Los Angeles, were that the quake was felt very slightly there. It was not felt in San Diego and Riverside. This would seem to establish that the quake was practically confined to Los Angeles.

A telephone message from Whittier said two slight shocks were felt there, but "they didn't amount to anything."

An hour after the quake there were scores of rumors of damage to various buildings but none were verified. If true the damage consisted of throwing the buildings out of line.

CITY HALL IS SCENE OF PANIC.

Plaster fell in many downtown structures, but apparently no one was injured.

There was a panic in the city jail when the aged building creaked giddily. A half dozen prisoners knelt in the cells and prayed. Others yelled frantically to be released and struggled with the immovable bars of the cells.

In Judge Houser's department of the superior court the slender suit of Miss Ruth Cruzen against Mrs. Euphasia Van Camp was on trial. Miss Cruzen was on the witness stand and as the building began to sway, fell into a violent fit of weeping. Judge Houser prevented a panic in the crowded courtroom by shouting:

"Be quiet. It's all right."

The city council was in session at the city hall, and a member was in the midst of a spirited address.

"I move we adjourn," shouted another member and the motion carried literally with a rush for the door.

The quake was not felt in San Pedro.

SANTA CLARA, Cal., July 16. (United Press)—The Los Angeles earthquake probably was of volcanic origin and local in extent, according to Father Ricard, who inspected the seismograph at Santa Clara university today for the United Press.

Father Ricard bases his theory in the fact that although the quake was of considerable violence, the records on his instrument were so small as to require microscopic examination.

The quake probably continued for half a minute, he said, and consisted of one major tremor with four or five smaller ones. The wing of the indicator was about one-half of a millimeter from the zero line to either side.

Father Ricard explained that the seismograph does not give as much importance to earthquakes of a volcanic nature which affect only one locality as to those which are of considerable extent. The record for the Los Angeles quake today, he said, is insignificant as compared with the one for the Inglewood quake of several weeks back.

OHIO WOMEN IN HARDING CLUB TO STOP MILITANTS

By A. O. HAYWARD,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

MARION, O., July 16.—Ohio women are organizing a "Harding for President club" to offset the effect of a recent statement issued by the militant suffrage organization at Washington, attacking Senator Harding for alleged lukewarmness in support of suffrage.

The militants will be in Marion July 22 for the Harding notification. Alice Paul, their leader, has been granted a conference appointment early in the day by Harding, at which she will present a demand that Harding insist on action by Vermont or Connecticut on the suffrage amendment before the November elections.

Senator Harding will discuss the suffrage issue in his acceptance speech. Senator Harding stated recently that the Republican party is responsible for the submission of the suffrage amendment.

Mrs. C. C. Pavey of Columbus, O., is president of the Ohio organization Women interested in the cause of suffrage and in the success of the Republican ticket have been asked to attend a preliminary meeting at Columbus today.

The club has for its object the triumph of Republican principles, believing the welfare of the country will be best served by the election of Harding and Coolidge," says Mrs. Pavey. "We are going to Marion on

Gen. Gonzales Is Jailed on Treason Charge

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 16.—A revolt, according to unconfirmed reports received here today, has broken out in the state of Yucatan.

MEXICO CITY, July 16.—General Gonzales, former candidate for the presidency and alleged leader of the abortive revolution in the state of Nuevo Leon, whose capture was reported today, will be placed on trial immediately, according to official announcement. The government has appointed General Francisco Cos of Saltillo, Enrique Estrada of Zacatecas and Joaquin Amaro of Torreón as members of the court, according to the newspaper Excelsior.

General Gonzales resisted arrest last night, claiming those who sought to apprehend him did not carry warrants. The house where he lodged was watched all night. Officials in the meantime obtaining a warrant. One version of the incident states he was found hiding in the cellar this morning.

Suspicion on the part of government officials was aroused by General Gonzales' refusal to publicly denounce the uprisings, the general claiming the rebellious chiefs were his personal friends.

notification day to offer our services to Senator Harding regardless of whether we vote or do not vote. We have brothers, fathers, husbands and others who will vote."

Senator Harding issued a statement yesterday to the effect that the organization of a third party and the placing of a third national ticket in the field will not change the plans of the Republicans.

THIS CHICAGOAN HUNTS BIG GAME AND HE FINDS IT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—Stewart Hodge, Chicago engineer, has gained the name of being one of the world's greatest big game hunters through sporting achievements on a fifteen-months trip to Africa and India.

Hodge and his wife reached here today from the Orient on their way to Chicago. Hodge weighed eight tons. He shot:

Three elephants, 23 lions, 14 buffaloes, 10 rhinoceroses, 5 hipopotami, 15 tigers and 21 zebras.

Jewelry Is Stolen; Bellboy Arrested

Charged with burglary, a 16-year-old bell boy at the Hotel Oaks, 623 Broadway, is at the city jail following his arrest this morning by Inspectors Sanderson and Tracy.

According to the police he admits he entered the room of C. A. Landin and stole jewelry valued at $200. He will be removed to the Detention Home pending investigation into the charges. The police believe the boy may be guilty of other robberies at the hotel reported during the last two weeks.

MAYORS FAVOR DAVIE PROPOSAL

be put to a vote the people should know for what they are voting. Instead of calling an election and electing a body of freeholders who might draw up a charter which no one would accept, a provisional charter should be presented so that there could be some knowledge of what was proposed.

Oliver Ellsworth, Mayor of Piedmont—This is too complicated a matter not to have a preliminary report, drawn by the proper experts, on the question of the best plan. In Piedmont we resent anything that would cause us to lose our identity. We would wish to know upon what we are going to vote before the expense of the election is incurred. I believe that by being able to present in substance the outline of the charter in advance of any election that a great deal of feeling caused by precipitate action would be allayed. I am satisfied some means can be adopted that may be of benefit to all of the communities but I believe that all of the cards should be placed on the table.

Thomas E. Knox, Mayor of Livermore—From all I hear I believe that the people of Livermore and all of the outside districts are against the consolidation plan. I have not thought over the plan of a conference and tentative charter as outlined by Mayor Davie enough to give a definite expression. On the face I believe, however, that any plan to let the voters know for what they are voting would be preferable to one that calls simply for the election of men who will later draw up the charter.

Own Gift Penny; Rival Gets $200 Ring, Is Wife's Plaintiff

Given one cent as a birthday present by a husband who gave a diamond ring costing $200 to another woman, is among the many charges made by Mrs. Hazel O. Campbell, Telephone Company cashier, in a suit for divorce filed by Attorney David J. Clark, against Royal R. Campbell, a blacksmith employed by the National Park Company at Yosemite.

Mrs. Campbell charges that her husband has failed to provide for her, compelling her to earn her own living while residing with other women for limited periods and has received endearing letters from them which she will present at the trial. Her husband has shown a mean disposition toward her ever since he was discharged from the navy on March 8, 1919, Mrs. Campbell says, by belittling her before friends, by calling her names and by declaring that his love for her was dead. He has also been white in a rage and thrown household articles at her, Mrs. Campbell says. She asks to be given an interlocutory decree with costs of suit and attorney fees, and the right to resume her maiden name of Jackson. They were married in Elk Grove on Christmas day, 1911. There are no children.

That Frank Vergottini, a blacksmith, has threatened to kill her and bury her where she could not be found and that he has also threatened to blow up the house with a bomb, are some of the charges made by Mrs. Alice J. Vergottini in a suit for divorce. She says her husband has been convicted of bootlegging.

should be utilized for the emergency hospital and a jail yard, it is held. Segregation of prisoners in jail for the first time is recommended to prevent noxious influences from coming under the influence of hardened criminals. It is also recommended that the interior of the jail be painted, and that mattresses be cleaned at least once a month or canvas bunks substituted.

CITY AMBULANCE ASKED. Pointing out that Oakland profits most from the emergency hospital maintained by the county, the grand jury recommends that the county council purchase an ambulance and provide persons trained in first aid to operate it, the police vehicles now used being held inadequate.

Recommendation is given the board of supervisors and Dr. R. G. Brodick, superintendent of the county hospitals, for the improvements made at the county hospital and infirmary as well as at Arroyo Sanitum, and also for the progress on the new Highland hospital of Alameda county. The jurors feel, it is stated, that the county will be in the front rank in the care of charges when all the changes contracted for have been completed. It is recommended that a proper system of property accounting be installed at the county hospital.

DAILY BALANCE, AID. That Fred Foss, county treasurer, should not be notified as to when the county officers will make accounting of the county funds, is another recommendation. This is to compel the treasurer to balance at the end of each day's business.

Playgrounds for boys and girls at the Detention Home should be covered with asphalt and portions of the lower floors painted, is a recommendation.

In summing up the report says that the grand jury has had eleven meetings and has completed all investigations.

VALLEJO PASTOR ADMITS DEFEAT IN CHURCH ROW

VALLEJO, July 16.—Rev. W. E. Phillips, former pastor of the First Christian church of Vallejo, who was locked out of his church by his board of trustees last winter and who then started a rival church, made an announcement today in which he practically admitted his defeat in the controversy, and said that he would retire from the ministry. He will become a window dresser in a local store. It was announced he is alleged to have shown to Miss Mabel Jones, whom he converted to his church, that started the row. His wife has stood by him and declared her belief in his innocence.

The state board of the church has been conducting an investigation and Phillips' action in quitting the ministry is taken as implying that they have decided against him. An injunction suit that the old trustees had instituted against the pastor was held in abeyance pending the church investigation.

Phillips says he is retiring because of the attitude of the state church board, and because he was ostracized by members of his reorganized congregation regarding financial support are not being met. Phillips' congregation has decided to join the Presbyterian church of Vallejo in a body.

NEW TEACHERS ARE SELECTED

The list of elementary and high school teachers to be assigned to duty during the coming school year, selected from the preferred lists prepared several weeks ago, was adopted at a meeting of the committee of the whole of the Board of Education last night and the instructors chosen will be submitted for election at the regular board meeting next Monday night.

In making the selections last night the board members were advised that fifty teachers were unable to accept positions in this city because of better salaries offered elsewhere or to the signing of contracts. A schedule was considered, showing the advances given some of the teachers that led them to refuse offers to teach in the local institutions.

The list of teachers recommended for election Monday includes 44 high school teachers and 87 instructors in the elementary schools.

The following were successful: High School—Gertrude Bangs, Mrs. Marion Beadles, Don O. Brighart, Beatrice Burnett, Ruth R. Calden, Mabel Edith Clark, Helen B. Colgan, Elmore C. Criss, Edw. Motor Association Elects New Officers

The annual election of officers of the Automobile Trades Association of Alameda county held at Richmond last evening was attended by about 350 members and their ladies. The parade from Oakland to Richmond was spectacular. Banquets and refreshments were the diversions. The presentation of a gold-mounted engraved fountain pen to Ernest S. Sutter, retiring president, was an event.

The new officers are: President, W. J. Hesse; vice, W. J. Nagel and Stewart Jones; secretary, Robert Wheatland; treasurer, Chas. Hebrank; executive committee, Konrad Gobel, W. E. Strel, E. J. Petter, C. L. Hebrank, J. H. Mackey, A. F. Hoffman, D. W. Hammond, J. Charles, N. H. Hesse, A. E. Burr, Don Enslinger, S. P. Fisher, W. E. Hite, L. S. Reno, S. J. Fisher, Al Hittman, M. Oliver, D. S. FIREMEN WILL PETITION SALARY RAISE ORDINANCE

That an initiative petition will be circulated for the passage of an ordinance putting into effect a new salary schedule for members of the fire department, granting them greater salary increases than those already awarded for the present fiscal year, was made certain today when the city council refused to adopt the ordinance submitted.

The resolution setting forth the council's reasons for not placing the issue before the people at the coming county primary election on August 31, was prepared this morning and submitted at the council session, but certain changes in the document resulted in the calling of a special council session for 4 o'clock this afternoon for the adoption of the resolution.

Under the charter provision covering the point, the council had five days within which to pass the firemen's salary ordinance submitted or submit their reasons for refusing. The petition was submitted Monday and the expiration date falls tomorrow, when the council does not meet, necessitating action today.

Before proceeding to circulate the initiative petition the fire department members are awaiting a legal opinion asked of the city attorney by Secretary FRANK Colburn of the civil service board as to whether the standing of the firemen will be threatened by their activity in circulating the document.

Second Suit Filed for $50,000 Damage

The second suit for $50,000 damages against the San Francisco-Oakland Trolley Road, for the result of the accident on July 2, when two men were killed on the Webster street bridge when crushed off from the wrong side of the car by another, was filed today. The present suit, which is also filed by Dunn, White and Alken, is on behalf of Mrs. Alice Sutton and her son, George Sutton, a minor, for the death of her husband, George E. Sutton. The suit was filed a few days ago on behalf of the widow of Charles Hard, who was killed in the same accident.

HAGAN REFUTES ROLAND CHARGE

After stating yesterday that the case of Eugene W. Roland, who was discharged by him from the city's legal department, was too insignificant for comment, City Attorney H. L. Hagan, later in the day, issued a statement denying that he had dismissed Roland because of political reasons. The statement follows:

Eugene W. Roland, recently discharged from the office of Deputy City Attorney by me, has stated to the press that his discharge was due in part to his refusal to provide policy opinions for political reasons.

Mr. Roland's statement is wholly untrue, for he has never been asked to furnish any policy opinion.

It is not true that he has been asked by anyone to point to a single policy opinion that has left this office since I have occupied the position of City Attorney.

Mr. Roland states further that his discharge was made in order to provide room for a political favorite. The statement is also untrue.

Mr. Roland was told that his dismissal was due to his unsatisfactory work and to the insufficient time which he was devoting to it.

The false statements made by Mr. Roland indicate that he is being used by designing political enemies to discredit the work of this office.

Judge Says Dalton Owes $6500 Damage

Superior Judge T. W. Harris today granted a judgment of $6500 for damages to Mrs. Edith N. Rahn from Henry P. Dalton, former Alameda county assessor, as well as clear title to property in New Jersey valued by him at $27,000. The judgment follows a legal fight of months over the exchange of several pieces of property. It was in evidence that Dalton traded Oakland and New Jersey property for a ranch near Sacramento, guaranteeing the property in New Jersey worth $27,000. Mrs. Rahn claimed the New Jersey real estate proved worth far less.

Judge Harris held with her.

Southern California Moves For Probe of Gas Famine

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—From a meeting being held in Los Angeles this afternoon is expected to result plans for an investigation of the gasoline shortage in California.

At this conference, at which automobile men, Federal officials and others are present, it will be decided whether a commissioner's complaint will be filed and a public hearing demanded or whether the whole matter will be placed before a new grand jury to be impaneled on July 23.

In the event the latter course is decided upon additional evidence may be introduced and indictments returned if the results justify.

While the northern part of the state was experiencing the worst of its gasoline scarcity south was well supplied, but now that restrictions are loosening a bit there the lid is on tight in Los Angeles and protests are arising in all parts of the city.

CHARGES ARE LISTED.

In Los Angeles the Automobile Club of Southern California, Supervisor J. H. Bean and United States District Attorney J. Robert O'Connor are among those who are demanding and guaranteeing that an investigation will be made. They have listed charges which they say will be sifted and which, if proved, may mean the indictment of a number of oil men.

Among these charges is one that the Standard Oil Company has more than 8,000,000 gallons of gasoline in storage at El Segundo.

Any official is said to be sponsor of a report that every night tankers may be seen at the wharves loading cargoes for outside ports.

It is argued the companies had promised that the peak of the shortage would be passed by the middle of July and that now they have set the time to the middle of August. Motorists have been able to get oil at one station and not at another and towns within three miles of Los Angeles have been supplied while that city has been without oil.

PROTESTING CLAIMED. Many accusations of profiteering have been lodged against station men who are said to have charged from 23 cents to 35 cents for gasoline. Some stations are said to have increased their charges each time a gallon of oil with each five gallons.

Suspects Arrested, Shoes Are Stolen

Carl Best and Ray Field were arrested last night by Patrolman J. O'Donnell after they had robbed it is charged, a second-hand store at Seventh and Washington streets.

The policeman says he caught them in the act of dividing a suitcase full of shoes.

Investigation revealed that burglars had "jimmied" a rear window and stolen all the new shoes in the store.

Others are looking for the opportunity to put their money into investments that will lessen their income tax and excess profits payments. The oil companies respond that the number of new wells opened is answer to this charge as no concern would open new wells while the old ones were not being used to full capacity.

Added to the many other charges is one that certain oil wells are curtailing production and that the own-

HEARTBURN by ADELE JARDSON

"I'll remember," she smiled at understanding of little Mrs. Durkee's "touchiness" as she went down the steps.

Lillian took me masterfully by the arm and marched toward the stairs. "Now, tell me all about it," Lillian commanded, when we had reached my own room and she had turned a precautionary key in the lock. "All about what?" I evaded foolishly enough, for I had been longing to confide in her.

"This mess out at Bayview," Lillian retorted, "I've been watching it from the papers and I tell you it's dynamite. The ramifications of such a thing are endless, and some of them might hit you or any other innocent bystander. I've been waiting for you to tell me something about it, but I've come to the conclusion that you don't realize the gravity of the thing or how it may affect you."

"Do you think so?" I asked significantly.

She whirled on me. "Then there is something," she declared. "I feel it in my bones. Your bones are prophetic," I retorted. "I was just on the point of coming to see you when you arrived."

"I knew it," she declared triumphantly. "Now sit down there, as the lawyers say, 'refresh your memory.' I want everything from the very beginning, and—please don't leave out anything, no matter how trivial."

I did not need to "refresh my memory," as she had requested. Every incident not only surrounded but leading up to the tragedy was etched indelibly upon my brain. And I had already marshaled them into a connected story for Lillian's hearing, when after the appearance of the leading lawyer I had decided to appeal to her for aid in unravelling the tangle in which I seemed to be enmeshed.

Lillian cupped her chin in her hands with her elbows on her knees, almost at my first word. The old familiar attitude would have in itself reassured me if her words had not already done so. It spelled Lillian in action, definitely "on the job," as Dicky would say.

I began my story with Kenneth Stockbridge's odd behavior when he had first asked me to take the position of assistant in the Bayview high school, and traced the chain of events conscientiously down to the mysterious death of the principal. At two points she interrupted me, but without looking up or changing at all from her tense attitude.

"GO ON," "Say that over again," she commanded, when I was describing the dramatic moment when Kenneth Stockbridge had dashed from his wife's hands, the glass of "fruit punch" intended for me.

"H—m!" she commented when I had gone over the incident again. "She knew where to lay her hands on poison, all right, and he knew that she knew. It shows one thing, she had the Borgias type of mind, no straight-forward villainy for her."

I knew better than to make any comment upon her monologue. Lillian always soliloquizes when she is intent upon a problem, and nothing so enrages her as to have any one interrupt her train of thought. Therefore I said nothing until Lillian, still without raising her face from her hands, said curtly:

"Go on."

Her second interruption came when I was relating the seemingly colorless incident of the luncheon which Lillian Stockbridge had shared with the teachers upon the first day of the principal's absence. In blind obedience to Lillian's command I omitted nothing in the recital, even describing the packets of tea which I had taken to the school, some of which I had given to Milly Stockbridge because she admired them.

"Wait a minute," Lillian commanded. "You say she asked you how to prepare that tea?"

"Yes, and I had to repeat the directions two or three times."

"I—m," a long pause, then answered another question.

"Didn't I read somewhere that she had fallen between her tea table and the telephone?"

"That was what Mr. Stockbridge said, who found her."

A CRYPTIC ANSWER.

"Any indications that she had been drinking tea or serving it to any one?"

"I am sure not. Alice Holcombe was explicit on that point."

"Any trace of how she took that poison, or how it was administered to her?"

"None whatever except that it was the same kind which Mr. Stockbridge had in his photographic laboratory."

"Of course it was, the clever fiend!" was Lillian's cryptic answer. Then with an impatience which she only shows when intent upon something baffling, she addressed her cupped hands vigorously.

"Now let us hope that the devil takes care of his own, for there's certainly a fine mess here for somebody's cooking."

TWO GIRLS DISAPPEAR
THOROLD, Ont., July 16.—Two girl children have disappeared here within the last few weeks and thorough search by volunteer parties of citizens has failed to reveal a trace of them. Kathleen Beechman, six years old, dropped out of sight on May 24. On Tuesday four-year-old Margaret Boocock was left playing on the lawn in front of the public library, while her mother entered the building. When Mrs. Boocock came out Margaret was gone.

Five Erin Police Ambushed, One Is Fatally Shot

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE
DUBLIN July 16.—A patrol of five constables and a sergeant was ambushed Wednesday night in the Adare district of County Limerick. One constable was wounded and died shortly afterward, but the others escaped uninjured, according to an official report.

THURLES Ireland July 16.—The bullet-riddled body of John Dwyer, caretaker for W. P. Henley, a race-horse fancier and owner of a tract of land from which tenants had been evicted was found Wednesday by the roadside near Drombane, near here. Dwyer is said to have received several warnings as a result of agrarian agitation in this vicinity. He is supposed to be a large family.

DUBLIN July 16.—The Lord mayor of Dublin intervened today in the Irish rail strike in an effort to effect a settlement. The strike which was precipitated by the refusal of the men to handle munitions shipments, is becoming more serious and a general stoppage of traffic is threatened. The Buncrana courthouse was burned today.

Truck Driver Sought in Navy Yard Thefts

VALLEJO July 16.—Operatives of the department of justice are today searching for the truck driver who transported stolen liquor across the Mare Island causeway in connection with the alcohol thefts now under investigation here. This is the latest angle of the inquiry which has resulted in the arrest of Lloyd F. Davis and A. E. Fournier. The police say they have the name of the driver and that he has apparently fled. Lieutenant J. F. Colvin whose presence is wanted to throw light on several angles of the alleged thefts, has not yet returned from Oregon.

WOMEN FIGHT ON POLE FRONT AGAINST REDS

WARSAW, July 14 (By The Associated Press).—Women soldiers have taken up position for the defense of Vilna. They have been assigned to an eight-mile front.

All the women are equipped with American boots and are being fed partly by the American Y. W. C. A. They are under the command of Madame Goerz, who fought with General Pilsudski against the Russians, and who also operated last year with the women during the siege of Lemberg.

Commander Goerz is 26 years old. She contends that women can hold their own alongside the men, even in the most dangerous fighting.

The woman commander is in charge of all her own transport system and rolling kitchens and all fighting equipment except artillery. Additional detachments of women are being formed throughout Poland for defense of the republic. As soon as their numbers justify it, Madame Goerz will be placed in command of Polish army.

In the north, where the Bolsheviks are using shock troops backed by crack divisions all along the entire front line in the effort to break through the Poles, the Bolsheviks came in contact with Lithuanian troops but there was no fighting according to reports received in Warsaw today. It is said the Lithuanians agreed to have Lithuanian troops ready to occupy Vilna soon after if Vilna was captured by the Bolsheviks.

The fall of Vilna would give the Bolsheviks virtually direct rail communication with East Prussia. It is estimated 60,000 persons have evacuated Vilna, utilizing vehicles of all kinds.

LOW AIR FARE WILL COMPETE WITH RAIL RATE

LOS ANGELES July 16.—Aerial passenger and mail service between Los Angeles and various California and Arizona points and possibly as far north as Oregon, is planned for the near future by a commercial aviation company with headquarters here, according to announcement.

Five planes of the latest model have been purchased at a cost of $30,000 each, it is announced. The upkeep of these planes is so low it is said, that air fare schedules which will nearly compete with railroad rates will be inaugurated. Two of the planes are expected from New York about July 26 and shortly afterward it is said service between San Francisco and San Diego and Bakersfield will begin.

There's a Story Told by Every Comb and Brush

And more often it's the sad story of falling hair and dandruff. Why is it many men and women absolutely neglect their hair except to brush it two or three times a day—asks Prof. John H. Austin, Chicago, 40 years a Bacteriologist, Hair and Scalp Specialist. If only the hair could ache or cause pain, there would be fewer cases of baldness and more people would have a lustrous growth of beautiful, lustrous hair.

Prof. Austin who now has offices with The Owl Drug Co., says that people are at all times troubled with a kind of hair and scalp trouble, such as—
—Itching Scalp
—Falling Hair
—Excessively Oily Hair
—Dry and Brittle Hair
—Dandruff
—Split Hair
—Gray or Faded Hair

—Should have their hair examined at once under his powerful microscope.

Prof. Austin says that the use of massage, tonics and elixirs without proper advice, is like taking medicine without knowing what you are trying to cure.

—During the past two years at The Owl Drug Co., Prof. Austin has made thousands of free microscopic examinations of the hair and scalp.
—Prof. Austin invites both men and women to take advantage of the FREE MICROSCOPIC EXAMINATIONS of the hair and scalp this week in his private office at The Owl Drug Co., 14th and Washington, Oakland. Hours 10 to 12 and 2 to 4 daily.—Advertisement About Digestion.
Digestion begins in the mouth. The food should be thoroughly masticated and swallowed before it is swallowed. When this is habitually neglected stomach trouble is almost sure to follow. If you now have indigestion eat no beef or veal and sparingly of other meats, masticate your food thoroughly and you may recover without taking any medicine. If your bowels are constipated take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only cause a gentle movement of the bowels but aid digestion and strengthen the stomach. FORCED TO FLEE, IS WIFE'S CHARGE

Coming home at 1 o'clock in the morning, Emanuel Tronvig threw cold water upon her when she was asleep in bed and started to beat her so fiercely that she was compelled to jump out of the second story window to escape him, Mrs. Anna Tronvig says in her suit for divorce on file today. While living at 3515 East Tenth street, Mrs. Tronvig says she was compelled to have her husband arrested on several occasions when he came home intoxicated. She asks for custody of two children and $50 a month alimony. They were married in Oakland on February 20, 1909.

Besides locking her up in a room for a day or two at a time while he was away, Tronvig says, F. E. Belfield would come home and compel her to sleep on the floor while he occupied the bed, says Mrs. Mary Belfield in a suit for divorce. On one occasion he knocked out her teeth with his fist, says Mrs. Belfield, and when he deserted her took her household furniture at 2440 California street and $125 in the bank which the wife declares was her separate savings, besides a trunk containing her personal effects. She asks the court to compel her husband to return the money and property.

WHISKY PUNCH DIRECT FROM COWS IN ORDER

MEMPHIS, July 15.—John King, a farmer, living near this city, last night found two of his cows in a stupor in their pasture, apparently suffering from some strange malady. A veterinarian was called and after a lengthy examination reported both animals as merely heavily drunk. A search for the cause led to the discovery of a "moonshine" still in a secluded corner of the pasture. The cows had eaten a quantity of the mash used by the illicit whisky manufacturers.

TERMINAL FETE PLAN DISCUSSED

Arrangements for the official opening of the Farr Terminal company's new port on the western waterfront were discussed today at a luncheon of the harbor development, naval and public entertainment committees of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, held in the blue room of the Hotel Oakland.

In addition, Joseph E. Caine, managing director of the Chamber of Commerce, made a report of the naval base situation and plans were laid for the proper presentation of the Alameda site to the Congressional commission due here in November.

The formal opening of the Farr Terminal will take place on August 10, and it is planned that one of the features shall be old sea chanteys sung by characters of the waterfront. These songs and other music are to be interspersed with speeches. The Farr company will be host at a luncheon which will be held in the newly completed transit shed and following the luncheon a complete inspection of the properties will be made by the guests.

It is expected that about 1500 guests will be present, including the leading residents of both sides of the bay.

Battery 'B' Has New Quarters for Members

As a result of efforts on the part of Adjutant General Borree, club members of the 143rd Field Artillery, now being re-organized. The new rooms, where former members of the regiment and new recruits are made welcome, are on the second floor of the Odd Fellows quarters at Eleventh and Franklin streets. Card tables, billiard tables and a reading room are among the features of the quarters.

Rapid progress has been made in recruiting members for the reorganized artillery regiment and it is anticipated that sufficient members will be enrolled in Battery "B," the first unit of the regiment to be recruited to muster the battery into service. A minimum of 50 members are required by the state for mustering and acceptance. Land for the erection of an armory has already been pledged by the city of Oakland and plans approved by the governor for a state appropriation for a building.

It is the plan of Major Harry Huber, in charge of the recruiting work in conjunction with Major General, to organize batteries "B" and "E," Headquarters Company and Regimental and Battalion Headquarters of the 143rd Field Artillery in Oakland. Battery "B" which will be commanded by Captain John H. Fahy, will be the first to be organized.

Mr. Arthur Sharp Tells How Cuticura Healed Pimples

"My trouble began with sort of an itching and burning sensation which bothered me. Then pimples began coming out on my face. Soon my face was a mass of itching, burning pimples, which disfigured me greatly, and the discomfort was terrible. I consulted a doctor, who prescribed a course of medicine, but it did not help. I was very much irritated then, more, and some nights I lost much sleep.

"I sent for a free sample of the Cuticura Preparations and was pleased with the result. I bought more, and after using one cake of Soap and Lint, my face was clear and healthy. (Signed) Arthur Sharp, Box 394, Salmestown, Ohio.

Once clear, keep your skin clear by using Cuticura Soap and Ointment for every day toilet purposes and Cuticura Talcum to powder and perfume. Nothing better.

Sample Book of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, with full directions, free. Write to: Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. 5, P. O. Box 107, Lowell, Mass. Sold every where. Soap 25c, Ointment 15c and 50c. Talcum 50c. Cuticura Soap always without cost.

Sure Way To Get Rid Of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone. Use three or four more applications and it will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is in expensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Advertisement.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—Further word of a wonderful cure for leprosy, which is attracting attention of medical men the world over, was brought here from Hawaii by passengers on the steamer Nio. It is said that a short time ago thirty patients at the Kalihit station were pronounced cured. The treatment, which is called the chaulmoogra oil process, was discovered by Dr. Arthur I. Dean, president of the University of Hawaii, and Dr. J. T. McDonald. The Hawaiian board of health and the two physicians have received letters from all parts of the world asking for information regarding the new method.

CHINA'S PREMIER HELD BY OFFICE

PEKING, July 16.—A striking example of the office seeking the man, or rather pursuing him, is afforded by the present cabinet situation. Premier Chin Yun-peng, who became leader of the "Chihli" political faction after the death of former president Feng Kuo-chang, wants to resign his post, but the president won't let him.

The ostensible reason of his desire to quit is the difficulty the government finds in financing itself. The real reason is said to be found in a counter which is in progress between the "Chihli" and "Anlu" factions, the latter being the military group. For the third time the premier has tendered his resignation and three times the president has refused to accept it. He has refused to accept it because he is a member of the cabinet, and his resignation brings forth a new extension of the leave. In the meantime Admiral Sah Cheng-peng, minister of the navy, is reluctantly filling the post of premier. Much political maneuvering is going on under the surface and at the moment it is regarded as probable that Chin Yun-peng will eventually resume his post, possibly with some changes in the ministries upon which he is said to be insisting.

HUMOR PATHOS ROMANCE

MO. HENDY Story a day

"Little Speck in Garnered Fruit"

Copyright, 1920, by Doubleday, Page & Co.; published by special arrangement with the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

The honeymoon was at its full. There was a flat with the reddest of new carpets, tasseled portieres and six steins with pewter lids arranged on a ledge above the wainscoting of the dining-room. The wonder of it had never been a yellow primrose by the river's brim, but if such a sight had met their eyes at that time it would have seemed like—well, whatever the poet expected the sight of people to see in it beside a primrose.

The bride sat in the rocker with her feet resting upon the world. She was wrapped in rosy dreams and a kimono of the same hue. She wondered what the people in Greenland and Tasmania and Polynesia were saying on the fact of any 14-pounder in the world. Not that it made any difference. There was no waterweight from London to the Southern Cross that could stand up four hours—no four rounds—with her bridegroom.

Love, when it is ours, is the other name for self-interest and self-conceit. The bride crossed her oxford and looked thoughtfully at the distemper Cupids on the ceiling.

"Precious," said she, with the air of Cleopatra asking Antony for Rome there ain't I'll have to throw up the sponge." There was three dozen, sah, when the game opened this evening; but I reckon the gentlemen done at 'em all up. If you'd like to eat a fast-race orange, sah, I kin find you some.

"Get busy," ordered the Kid, eternally, "and move whatever peach crop you've got quick or there'll be trouble. If anybody oranges me again to-night, I'll knock his face off."

The raid on Denver Dick's high-priced and prodigious luncheon revealed one lone, last peach that had escaped the epicurean jaws of the followers of chance. Into the Kid's pocket it went, and that indefatigable forager departed immediately with his prize, with scarcely a glance at the scene on the sidewalk below, where the officers were loading their prisoners into the patrol wagons. He moved homeward with long, swift strides.

His heart was light as he went. So, the knights back to Camelot after perils and high deeds done for their ladies fair. The Kid's lady had commanded him and he had obeyed.

True, it was but a peach that she had craved; but it had been no small deed to glean a peach at midnight from that wintry city where yet the February snows lay like iron. She had asked for a peach; she was his bride; in his pocket the peach was warming in his hand that held it for fear that it might fall out and be lost.

On the way the Kid turned in at an all-night drug store and said to the spectacled clerk:

"Say, sport, I wish you'd slice up this rib of mine and see if it's broke down a slight or two of stairs."

The druggist made an examination. "It isn't broken," was his diagnosis, "but you have a bruise that looks like you'd fallen off the Flat-iron twice."

"That's all right," said the Kid. "Let's have your clothesbrush, please."

The bride waited in the rosy glow of the pink lamp shade. The miracles were not all passed away. By breathless desire for some slight thing—a flower, a pomegranate, a—oh, yes, a peach—she could send forth her man into the night, into the world which could not withstand him, and he would do her bidding.

And now he stood by her chair and laid the peach in her hand. So, the "Naughty boy," she said, fondly. "Did I say a peach? I think I would much rather have had an orange."

Blest be the bride.

Graft and Gambling Rule Border Mexico, Says Banker

MEXICO CITY, July 16.—Conditions in the northern border states of Mexico were characterized as immoral and disorderly by Roberto V. Pesqueira, financial agent for the Mexican government in the United States, in a statement he has just issued to the Mexican newspapers. Senor Pesqueira said the inscription which appears on signposts along the roads leading to Tia Juana, Lower California, "To Mexico—the road to hell," was accurate. For a few years, no one had been able to work with security in Chihuahua and, he added, that "in Juarez, as in Lower California, formerly there was a throne rapine in all its forms. One single example would suffice to show the immorality that exists there. The gambling concession produced $21,500 monthly to the government, and the same concessionaries today are in Ireland, lodged in the period from

WIDOW TELLS MAN'S MURDER, OWN ASSAULT

FULLERTON, July 16.—Orange county was aroused today when it learned that Mrs. Roy Trapp, widow of the murdered Fullerton rancher, had recovered sufficiently early today and told her physician a revolting story of the assault made upon her after her husband had been beaten to death as he slept beside her Wednesday night.

She said that two men broke into the room, murdered her husband and then, while one held a flashlight, the other assaulted her. Then they had fled.

Fearing to excite Mrs. Trapp, the physician is requiring the story be told only in fragments.

Search for a negro who has fled toward the Mexican border marked today a new and sensational development in the mystery surrounding the murder of Trapp, and the attack on his young wife.

Trapp was murdered with a pickaxe while asleep. Mrs. Trapp suffered grave injury from the same assailant in trying to defend herself.

The hunt for a negro suspected of the crime started immediately after clues pointing to such a conclusion had been found. A flashlight picked up in the death room was identified as one sold a negro that day. A negro had called the morning before the murder at the Trapp home and had been given an old pair of trousers. A negro with these trousers under his arm was seen boarding the "blind baggage" of a San Diego train soon after the crime.

Sheriff Jackson is rushing with a posse today to San Diego to attempt to head off the negro's flight into Mexico.

Mystery Surrounds

Shot At Movie Man

SEATTLE, Wash., July 16.—Mystery surrounding a supposed attempt today to shoot Julius Von Herberg, moving picture magnate, as he was leaving the Liberty Theater early this morning. Von Herberg told the police he heard a shot and a bullet struck the curb at his feet.

E. E. Richardson, landlord of a rooming house opposite the theater, in whose room, it is said, a 38-caliber automatic pistol was found, is under arrest.

Police Judge Mortimer Smith will leave Monday for a motor tour of the northern part of the state. He said that he was "just starting out with no special destination in mind."

It has been the habit of the judge to spend his vacation traveling by automobile. This time he will be gone about two weeks, and will "head north." Last year he toured the south.

LEARNED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—The congressional inquiry into the Japanese immigration and land situation in California was given fresh interest with the arrival here today of forty "picture" or contract brides from Japan on the Japanese liner Shinyo Maru.

After passing quarantine the brides were taken to the immigration station at Angel Island where they will remain until the house substitute committee on immigration and naturalization can have an opportunity tomorrow to see them given over to the husbands who they have never seen before but to whom they are married through the exchange of personal photographs and a wedding ceremony in Japan from which the groom was absent.

TO EXPLAIN PICTURE BRIDES.
The congressmen will have these "picture bride" practices explained as the Japanese husbands from all parts of the state match photographs and correspondence with the women and then take them away to their new homes.

Because of long continued objection to it the picture bride practice was suspended on February 27 through mandate of the Japanese government. Hundreds of "picture brides" however, had secured their passports before that date. According to the office of Tokyo the passports are good within a six months' period dating from February 27 and "picture brides" will continue coming here until that period has passed.

CALAMITY, SAYS WITNESS.
STOCKTON, July 16.—Testimony that withdrawal of Japanese from the San Joaquin river delta lands would be "nothing less than a calamity" was given before the congressional immigration investigation committee here last night by G. A. Atherton, general manager of the California delta farms company, a concern controlling 60,000 acres of delta land below Stockton.

The committee resumed hearings last night after attending a banquet as guests of George Shima, wealthy Japanese land owner.

Atherton gave the history of reclamation of the delta lands, stating that building of levees and draining of tracts begun with Chinese laborers before the exclusion law went into force was finished by Japanese.

In his experience he said he had found that Japanese women worked in the fields only until their husbands had earned enough money to enable them to devote their attention exclusively to housework.

Japanese standards of living were raised to American levels as rapidly as possible, Mr. Atherton testified, particularly in the matter of clothing, while the experience of his company was that the Japanese were financially reliable.

LETTER FROM KAWAKAMI.
The committee received last night a letter from K. K. Kawakami of San Francisco, corroborating the testimony of Colonel John P. Irish on Monday that two letters read to the committee by Senator James D. Phelan were decoys. One of these alleged letters congratulated Governor Stephens on warding off anti-Japanese legislation. The decoy letters and the waste basket in which they were thrown disappeared from his office, Kawakami stated. Members of the committee said his communication to them attached Senator Phelan for his attitude toward the Japanese.

SHIMA HITES AMERICANS.
The legislators saw Mandeville Island, where 5400 acres in potatoes and onions were under Mr. Shima's control. He told them he had cleared away the brush and shrubs on the island so that the crops could be planted.

Next they visited Bouldin Island, where 8000 acres were growing beans and potatoes. This had been under water for several years until he reclaimed it by building levees and farmed large acreages after they had been left in poor condition by Japanese, was called as a witness.

Committee hearings were scheduled to last today only, as the congressmen expect to leave tonight for San Francisco in order to see the latest shipment of "picture brides" from Japan at the Angel Island immigration station tomorrow. A hearing Saturday evening also is on the program. It is likely that early next week the committee will leave for Southern California.

WILL TAKE UP
THEFT CHARGE.

Members of the committee said they did not expect to take up until arrival in San Francisco the communication received last night from K. K. Kawakami in which he attacked Senator Phelan and asserted that two of the letters read by the senator at last Monday's hearing in San Francisco were decoys to learn if espionage was being practiced on Kawakami.

Kawakami's communication admitted the authenticity of a letter which Senator Phelan said Kawakami had written to Dr. Stanley L. Gulick of New York to the effect that Dr. Gulick still desired to come to California in the interest of the Japanese cause "we can find a way to bring you here."

"THE THIRD PARTY."

Out of the noisy and carefully staged spectacle at Chicago of a few groups of perennial malcontents forming a third political party two or three farcical sideshows survive the first act. They are sustained for the present on the energy developed in the preliminaries. They will not gain in attractiveness of drawing power.

The third party movement has proved a failure—the only fate it deserved at the hands of those who promoted it. Not only will it fail to exert any strength as a political organization; as a minority political or economic organization it will contribute nothing of value to the thought and progress of the country—the sole merit of minorities.

Under the spell of impractical and ill-conceived urgings by interests that desired to use them selfishly, under the spiritual lash of imagined wrongs, the stimulant of fruitless hopes and the direction of men and women who were active enemies of America, a variegated assembly was convoked at Chicago. Almost immediately it disintegrated. There was no common tie but disappointment. This was not strong enough to hold them together.

First the Single Taxers bolted the assembly. They were so obsessed with their delusion they could hold no sympathy for the delusions of others. Then the majority and the more influential of the big leaders of the so-called "Party Eighters" bolted. They could not commit themselves to the radical platform insisted on by the radicals which constituted the majority of the whole.

These ringleaders did not like the idea of aligning themselves with forces that frankly were for revolt against the government and for aiding the enemies of the United States. This was not because the ringleaders of the Party Eighters were more virtuous, but they got cold feet. They saw they might be led to the shadow of the prison and their lives of ease give to prisons a most distasteful aspect.

After these desertions the radicals which constituted the majority of the conglomeration of malcontents went ahead with the business they had in mind all the while. They drew up a platform of radicalism and adopted it with hurrahs. They took the undeserved and misleading title of "Farmer-Labor" party, called it a day and went home or to the home of someone else.

In their platform the "founders" of the Farmer-Labor party demanded amnesty for slackers, draft dodgers and traitors; the repeal of the espionage, sedition and criminal syndicalism laws. These laws enacted for the protection of the country in time of peril, came in for special condemnation. They demanded the recognition of the Trotsky-Lenin dictatorship in Russia and the withdrawal of our peacetime consular corps for the Philippines, Cuba, Porto Rico, Guam and Hawaii. It meant nothing to the radicals that the people of these lands may not desire the severance of their relations with the United States; it sufficed them to urge the very thing the foreign enemies of the United States most desire.

The radicals wrote into their platform a few other declarations to clearly identify themselves with the powerful propagandists that have been agitating for a third party for the last year, but the main message is hostility to the interests of the United States and aid for the enemies of the country.

Neither farmers nor the laborers have had any important part in bringing together these individuals that attempt to disguise their real purpose by calling themselves a political organization. The American Federation of Labor has repudiated them; they are the radicals of unionized labor who have joined with alien enemies of unionized labor. The National Grange and other farmers' associations have repudiated them; they count among their number men who would confiscate the land and homes of the farmers and turn them over to a soviet state for the exploitation of Bolshevik dictators who know how and have dared to drive laborers to work with the bayonet and the knout.

This "Farmer-Labor" party is the product of the Chicago third party conventions. It is misshapen, misnamed. It is without the intelligence, vision or virtue to make any uplifting or progressive contribution to the political thought, or to give anything of desirable substance to the political action of the United States. It is not an American party, nor does it stand for America. It stands for Soviet Russia and all the destructive anarchistic experiments that Emma Goldman, arch anarchist, has found to be failures in Russia.

NOT CAMPAIGN MATERIAL.

Two important disclosures have been made in the hearings before the Congressional committee, now in California, investigating the Japanese immigration question.

One is that the committee is making a very thorough examination of the extent of the economic encroachment of Japanese in this State and of the charges that wholesale violations of the "Gentlemen's Agreement" to limit immigration is going on with the knowledge and connivance of the Japanese government. The other is that the members of the committee are mindful of the importance of taking the necessary steps to correct such conditions inimical to the best interest of the State and country as may exist through diplomatic channels.

The burden to adjust the Japanese question peaceably and without disturbing unnecessarily the amicable relations between this country and Japan rests upon the federal government. Only after Washington fails should the State inaugurate measures and efforts that may be embarrassing to international relations.

Much good would result if the federal authorities would insist that the "Gentlemen's Agreement" be strictly observed and that adequate safeguards against the clandestine entry of Oriental immigrants be maintained. At the same time the State could see that a stricter observance of the alien land ownership laws is enforced.

In addition to this the government at Washington should seek at once a new agreement with Japan regarding the immigration question and the citizenship of those Japanese already in the country. This, reports from Washington indicate, is already under consideration.

The important thing to avoid, as The Tribune has previously stated, is conversion of a perplexing State and international question into a political prop for men seeking office. This will be done if the course outlined in Governor Stephens' letter to the Secretary of State is followed. The Congressional committee naturally will observe the itching of politicians to make capital out of the subject being considered, because one of its members is a candidate for reelection in November.

UPHOLDING THE TREATY

Mr. Andrew Bonar Law, in a statement in the British House of Commons, has uncovered the fundamental plank in the policy of the European Allies regarding Poland and the Russian Bolsheviks. There can be no question that this statement by Mr. Law represents the agreed program of Great Britain and France, and presumably one to which Italy has given her approval.

The program is to stand by the Versailles peace agreement and to uphold its provisions. The Poles will not be given military assistance in maintaining the frontier they have established beyond the boundaries prescribed in the peace treaty, but if the Bolshevikist attackers cross these treaty lines the Allies will help Poland resist.

This is another way of saying that Poland should withdraw to the boundaries set up by the Versailles agreement, if she expects the active support of the Allies. On this basis the British and French governments have suggested to the Bolshevikist chiefs an armistice to the fighting in the East. The condition exacted is that the Bolshevik armies shall not invade Polish territory.

From this the world is to form the encouraging conclusion that the Allies in Europe are determined to enforce the treaty conditions, at least in all their important aspects.

There has been staged at Spa, Belgium, during the last few days a conference between Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain and Premier Millerand of France on the one side and the German chancellor on the other a series of conferences on Germany's noncompliance with the treaty. The Allies have made it perfectly clear that if the agreement to make good the losses in coal sustained by France and Belgium on account of the destruction wrought by the German armies, occupation of the Ruhr and other Rhine districts will be accomplished at once. Other reparation payments may not be delayed except at the risk of military operations.

In the giving of these notices it is to be hoped that the Allies are not bluffing and that in case the warnings are not heeded military operations will be started without delay. This will be the quickest and cheapest and most peaceable way of convincing the recalcitrant Germans and Bolsheviks that the treaty means exactly what it says in its major aspects. The Germans still remain unconvinced. They indulge quibbling and shallow attempts at evasion.

Once there is perfect understanding that the orders embodied in the Versailles agreement are to be enforced, greater stability will ensue. Most of the trouble in Europe and the Near East at present is due to the hope that a change can be wrought in the treaty.

NOTES and COMMENT

The sting will not be as keen now as it would have been in any of the former races if Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht "Comet" comes in ahead. He has shown himself to be such a good sport that losing to him, though it may be disappointing, will not be heart-breaking.

The price of sugar has been cut a half-cent a pound. As the price is still $21.75 a hundred wholesale, there is a tedious journey ahead at that rate before it gets down to a reasonable retailing distance. The cuts downward are pitiful when the jumps upward are remembered.

Otherwise perfectly honest and honorable men, nothing wrong in invading orchards which they may be riding past and helping themselves to fruit. Orchardists have organized lately, and the comfortable idea that it is no violation of law or common honesty to invade another's premises and take his property if it happens to be fruit may in some measure be corrected.

The Mexican envoy expresses himself as well pleased at this country's attitude toward the new regime. If the regime proves equal to eliminating Villa and reducing banditry he will have occasion to be still better pleased.

Farley P. Christensen just beat out Dudley Field Malone for nomination of the third party. Besides this outstanding fact is the appearance that Amos Pinchot was left faithfully and industriously holding the bag.

For a movement that does not promise stupendous results the third party's proceedings get a great deal of publicity. There at least will be no ground for a complaint that it was ignored by a "capitalistic press" with the idea of killing it by refusing its affairs a place in the news.

Senator Harding's readiness to accept the President's League of Nations as the main issue of the campaign is evidently disconcerting. Those who have to bear the brunt have not the President's faith that the country is seething in a desire to confirm the executive position on this question.

The slogan, "He kept us out of McAdoo," is only suitable for the Federal brigade to chant. The party rank and file seem unable to find comfort in any expression that has as yet been proposed.

The ban on dealing in wheat futures has been removed, but it will make no desirable difference in the price of bread. Wheat bought for future delivery is not for bread purposes. The fact, often such grain is never delivered. Indeed, more often than not there is no such grain. A ban on future wheat was something to do with real wheat.

It may be surmised where the disgruntlement is over the selection of Theodore Bell to manage the Cox campaign in California. Bell had been steam-rollered till it was supposed by those in control of party affairs in California that he was completely flattened out, and for him to suddenly be politically reincarnated must be wholly disconcerting.

One useful result of the Congressional investigation of the Japanese question is the authentic information brought out regarding the Japanese invasion. The general public has only read of it in the news columns, in accounts exaggerated on the one hand and unduly mitigated on the other. The public is now getting evidence from witnesses under oath. The danger from such a clamorous and feigned people certainly appears to be considerable.

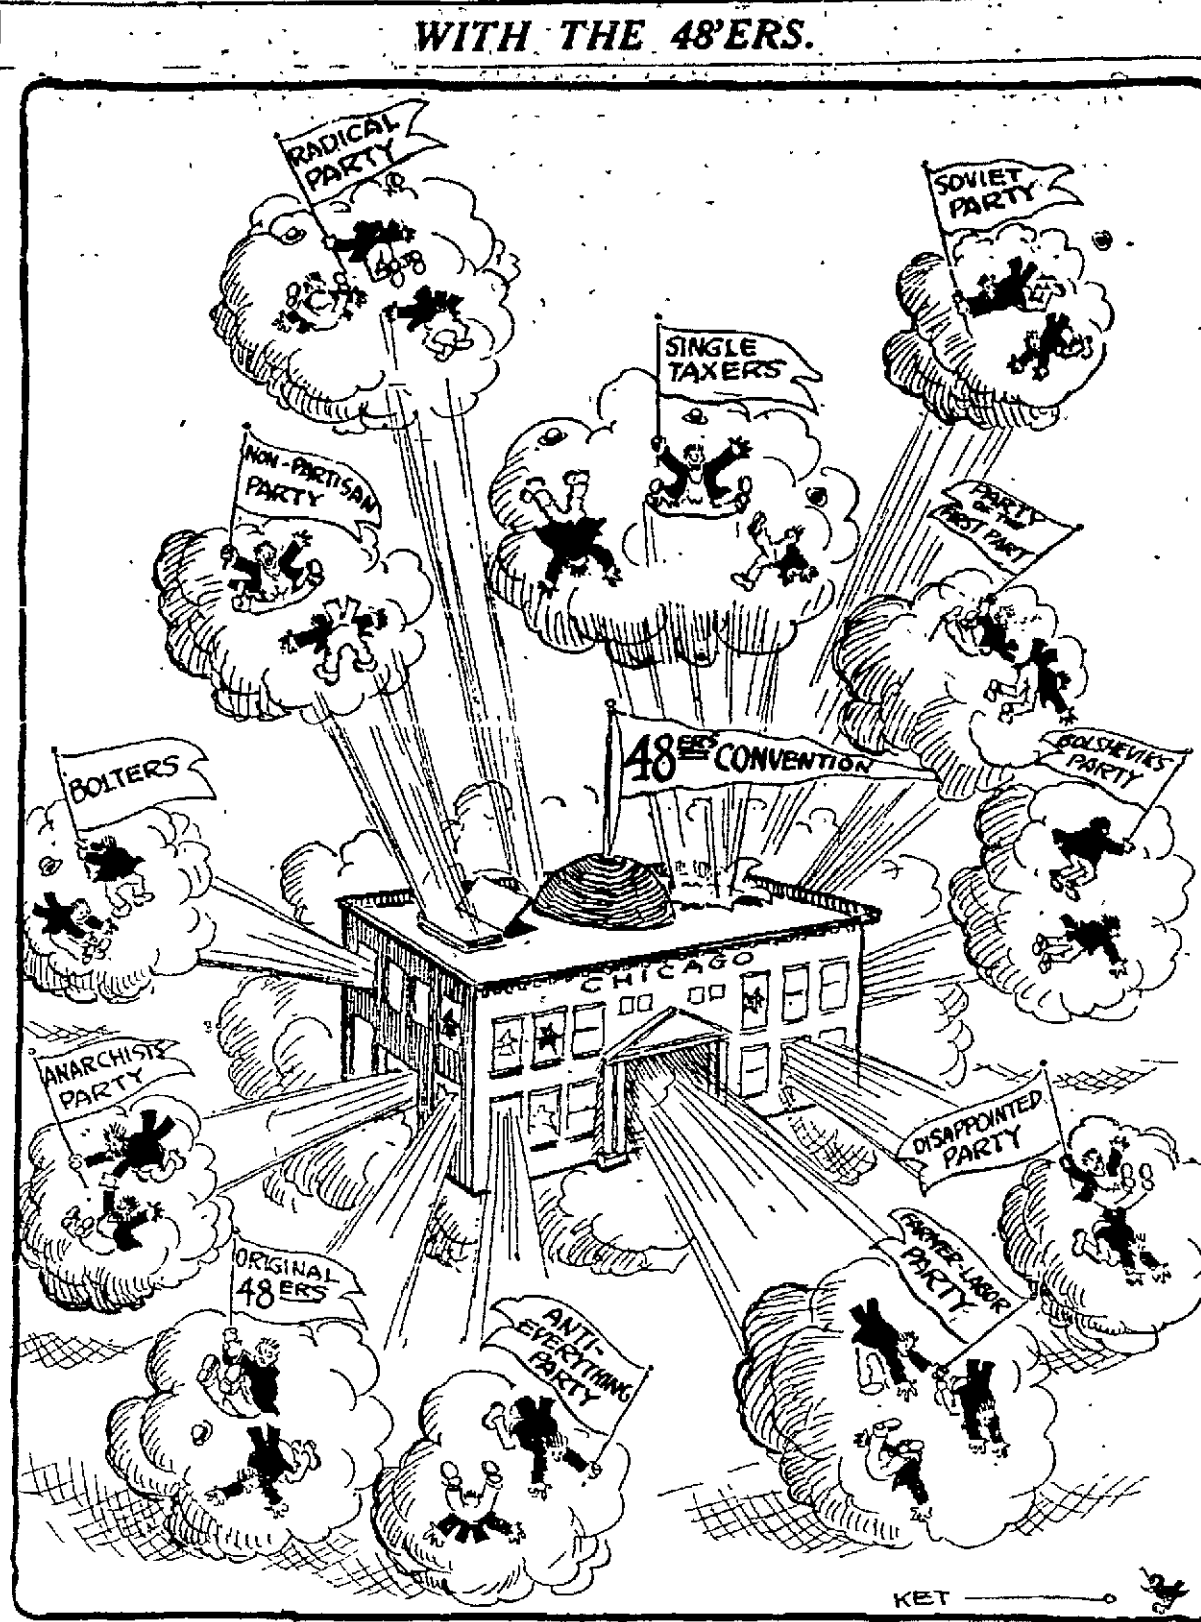

The editor of the Red Bluff News, who attended the recent convention, seems to be thinking aloud: "We can only imagine what a Democratic convention looked like in the days of the open saloon and before women were delegates."

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

The horny-handed son of toil shouts loud and long about other people getting so all-fired rich and riding around in their limousines with bunches of orchids hanging up in front, while he has to get down under the aforesaid machine with a monkey wrench and screw up the dumperingus at $6.40 per. And sometimes we get full of sympathy for him because he gets grime under his finger nails and more or less oil and muck down the back of his brawny neck and help him boiler, and throw a few harpoons into the frame of the bulky billionaire with course of the purse. But, for all that, there are oftentimes migrating circumstances of which he wots not, or, but of which the other fellow has wotted all of his life—Tracy Press.

Some women take to politics almost as fearfully as they do to baseball. A supposedly well-informed woman voter here who heard that Roosevelt had been named Cox's running mate, expressed surprise that he would again accept the vice-presidency.—Hanford Sentinel

As summer advances the various kinds of mushrooms begin to appear in the woods and meadows, and the ignorant mushroom gatherer fares forth and plucks a glowing toadstool or two along with his non-poisonous varieties, and the next day the undertaker appears at his house. No one should gather or eat any kind of mushroom with which he is not thoroughly familiar. While there are certain easily distinguishable characteristics of non-poisonous fungi, and eke of the deadly kind, there are all sorts of gradations between the species.—Marysville Appeal.

WHERE LIBERTY REALLY ENLIGHTENED

As the liner left the wharf at New York the free and enlightened American citizen heaved a sigh of relief. "I guess I'll have a highball," he said to the steward. "I guess not, sir," replied the affable steward. "Not yet." "Why not?" said the U. S. A. man. "This is a British ship, isn't it?" "Yes, sir." "Then why can't I have a drink?" "We have not yet passed the Statue of Liberty, sir," replied the steward with unconscious irony.—London Morning Post

STATES RIGHTS PARTY AWRY

Now Mr. Wilson has "outwitted" Senator Harding upon the suffrage issue by sending a telegram to the Governor of Tennessee asking him to call a special session to consider the suffrage amendment.

Contrasting this with Senator Harding's declaration that he never could think of interfering with purely State affairs and would not recommend the holding of special sessions, the Democratic press called attention to the "great advantage gained."

Yet there was a time when it was considered the duty of the President to attend the affairs of the nation, and leave the State affairs to those delegated by the people to manage them. Since 1912, however, that old-fashioned idea has been relegated to the extreme rear.—Worcester Telegram (Republican).

Out shot the burly one's foot, and the next moment the youth was sitting in the gutter. Slowly he rose, smiled sadly, held up a football guide, and continued:

HEALTH and HAPPINESS

Why You Should Bathe Each Morning or Every Evening

By Dr. LEONARD K. HIRSHBERG, A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins University.)

You have all heard the joke about the beautiful bath and the wish "If Saturday night were only here." The humor of this joke rests on the fact that you know you ought to take a bath every day. You're afraid that those who repeat this joke to you may discover it applies to you, so you hold your sides in hilarious laughter at the very idea of any one waiting a whole week for a bath.

You should bathe, though it be for only one minute, every morning or night. You need not be one of the boastful "cold bath" heroes, for that is not necessary. In truth, the cold bath so-called is really about 70 to 80 degrees Fahrenheit. Not cold at all, though you do shiver. What I think of those fellows who tell you to take a shower or step into a tub with a layer of ice over the water will not get by the editor's blue pencil. Indeed, the much feared "cold" bath is only ten degrees cooler than the warm bath of 90 to 100 degrees. These are the only two which are advisable before breakfast.

The sponge bath, the wet pack and the hot bath are preferably to be taken at night just before retiring.

Contrary to general observation, investigation and practice there is a notion that "it takes too much time to bathe every morning." Millions of men in the army, where time between reveille and mess call is fractional, have proved this idea to be false. You can take a five-minute shower bath, with its muscular exercise and stimulation, in half a minute, with another half-minute for a brisk friction rub all over with a rough towel and four minutes of setting up exercises before you dress.

Those who are inclined to be covetous find this better than medicines, and to mention various other benefits.

For those whose skins itch after a bath or who call their itch "prickly heat," hives or the like, a bran bath, made with a pound of moist bran in a muslin bag immersed in the bath frequently allays the itching. The water must be a good milky color, and the layer of bran is not to be rubbed from the skin or folds of flesh.

When all this is said and done it is found that those who bathe every day in some manner pleasant to themselves are in better health, less given to obesity, and more vigorous in many ways than those who bathe only once or twice a week.

THE AFFLUENT IDLE

Governor Coolidge, vice-presidential nominee on the Republican ticket, in addressing a body of student graduates, says that it will come to be as much a discredit for men of influence to remain idle as it is for those of little influence to go about the streets begging instead of working. This is not social discord or social upheaval doctrine. It is common sense and democratic expression. It does not matter whether one is employed in the advancement of the arts and sciences or of literature, whether one is employed in any one of a million ways, so that he is making his contribution to the wealth of character or material substance or ideals of the times of which he is a part—Baltimore American.

SHOWS McKINLEY AMENITY

The signs are already abundant that the Republican organization workers are finding Senator Harding easier to work with than Mr. Hughes in 1916. As a practical factor in the campaign this is not to be belittled.—Springfield Republican.

CIVIL SERVICE NOT OBLIGATORY ON JOB HOLDERS

Appointive city employees now holding office will not have to take the civil service examination to retain their jobs, if the new charter amendment, fostered by the Civil Service Employees' Association, is adopted at the next election. It was announced this morning following a meeting of the Civil Service Association executive board, at which Henry F. Vogt presided.

The following statement was given out after the meeting:

"No employees specifically exempted under sections 72 and 80 of the city charter will be included in this charter amendment.

"The amendment would place appointive workers in the offices of the city clerk and city attorney, in the playground, civil service, library and park boards under civil service and would make it necessary for any new employee to take the examination. Incumbents, however, will be admitted to civil service standing without the test.

JOB HOLDERS EXEMPT

"This action has been taken on account of the storm of protest which has greeted the plan to force all such appointive workers to take examinations in order to retain their jobs. Not more than a score of employees will be affected by the amendment.

"The boards mentioned have voluntarily placed their employees under civil service, but there has been no court decision stating what legal rights these workers may have, since the charter does not make the civil service qualifications mandatory. As applied to the playground, civil service, park and library boards, therefore, the purpose of the charter is merely to legalize the actions of the various boards in voluntarily placing the men and women in civil service.

"About five employees in the city clerk's office and four in the city attorney's office will be affected."

No representative of the appointive group appeared before the Civil Service executive board. It was at

UNIVERSITY GETS BEQUEST TO AID FARM SCIENCE

BERKELEY, July 16.—An announcement was made today at the office of President David P. Barrows of the University of California of a bequest by James Horgan to the university, the income of which is to be devoted toward the promotion and development of agriculture, particularly to the purposes and work of the University Farm at Davis.

Approximately $1000 each six months will be received by virtue of the bequest.

The amount received by the State University represents two-thirds of the net income from the trust estate of James Horgan, one-sixth being devoted to the National Geographic Society of Washington and the other sixth to the American Forestry Association, also of Washington.

First proposed to place all city employees except the chiefs of police and the fire department, the city attorney and the mayor's secretary, but the Civil Service Employees' Association decided some time ago not to insist on this.

In accordance with the decision, an amended petition to bring the three amendments and two new sections before the people, will be laid before the Council at Monday's session. In general, the intent of the charter changes is to clarify those provisions of the instrument relating to civil service.

EXEMPTED LIST

Under the changes decided on today employees excluded from the operation of the amendments will be the police and fire chiefs, city clerk, city treasurer, superintendent of streets and city engineer, city attorney, health officer, building inspector, superintendent of the electrical department, chief sanitary inspector, chief plumbing inspector and secretary to the mayor.

Following the filing of the amended petition Monday the Council is allowed five days to place the amendments and new sections on the ballot in lieu of which the Civil Service Employees' Association will circulate an initiative.

Further provisions of the amendments finally determine the right of appeal to the Civil Service board and give that body authority over efficiency markings, salary and wage fixing and adjustment, and the classification of positions.

BODY TRAINING TEACHERS CLAIM BIG INCREASE

BERKELEY, July 16.—The growth in the scope of the field of physical education has created a demand in the United States for 45,000 trained teachers, according to Frank W. Hetherington, state superintendent of physical education, who addressed the conference of the Western Division of the American Physical Education Association today. Hetherington said that to supply this need there were but three or four thousand men available.

"Physical education as a profession has grown more rapidly than any other branch in the educational field," said Hetherington. "It is today where manual training was ten years ago. Physical educators have found that less trouble in salaries than other teachers. Where the average a few years ago was $1000 it is now $2500 with many receiving much more."

Hetherington closed with a tribute to the Boy Scout movement. Addressed by Birdsell Dickson of Oakland and John Collier, head of the Americanization work in the state, followed. Mary A. McCall of the Edison Junior High School, Berkeley, presided.

Dr. A. D. Browne, associate professor of physical education at Stanford, and Miss Helen Masters Bunting, physical director for women at the same institution, attacked the present program of competitive games between institutions at yesterday's session, while Miss Mabel S. Cummings, department of hygiene and physical education at the University of Oregon, favored it.

Mass athletics were urged by Dr. Browne, who also urged Rugby as a health-giving game. He declared football must be taken away from "commercialized interests" and played on its merits.

Stanford does not want to dictate to the high schools of the State that it should play Rugby also," declared Dr. Browne. "But if Rugby makes better athletes than the American game it should be played regardless of the comment about it."

Horrors of Rule of Red Regime in Hungary Related By Woman

MRS. ERNEST LUDWIG, wife of former Austro-Hungarian consul-general at Cleveland, Ohio, who saw Hungarian revolution break out under her hotel window.

Oakland Visitor is Eye Witness to Suffering and Famine in Buda-Pest and Other Cities

Extreme poverty reigns in the new republic of Hungary which stripped of two-thirds of its former territory, devastated by Russians, revolutionists and the Roumanians, and looted of furniture, food, clothing and arms by the Bolshevik Red Guards finds thousands of its citizens suffering from cold and starvation, according to Mrs. Ernest Ludwig, wife of the former consul general at Cleveland for Austria-Hungary, who has arrived at the Hotel Oakland.

"Enormous poverty-stricken women, clothed in a single wrapper, roam the streets of Budapest seeking food," said Mrs. Ludwig. "The poor are burning the wooden crosses off the graves to keep warm."

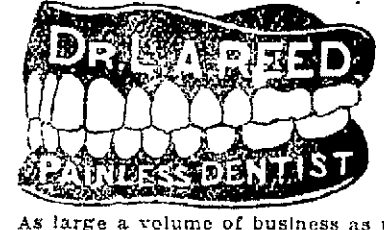

Mrs. Ludwig has just arrived in Oakland for a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. Kendrick, of 1457 Jackson street, and will make her headquarters at Sausalito where her sister, Mrs. Rodman Peel, lives.

PROFITTEERING HAMPAIT

"Profiteering is eating out the heart of the nation. A suit of clothes which once cost 100 crowns, now costs 25,000 crowns. Butter is $20 a pound and 35 a pound is charged for white flour. Of course, as early as 1917 food had been rationed, but exhausted and one had to pay surreptitiously in order to live. After the revolutionists, the Bolsheviks and the Roumanians had in turn overrun the country, the sight of people falling dead on the streets of starvation, of little children toppling over, of the moans and cries of hungry babes, was common in Budapest."

The condition of the remainder of the 500,000 Hungarians sent as

CLUBMAN SHAVES, THEN ENDS LIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—After a shave, a haircut and a plunge in the Olympic Club, where he was a member, William McCord, 53, cashier for the Butler-Schultz company, ended his life in a dressing room by firing a bullet through his head. A note beside his body read: "My dear family: My mind is failing and I am unable to work. Please forgive me. Will."

McCord entered the club at 6 o'clock, stopped to chat with a friend and then went into the barber shop. He appeared to be in good spirits. Frank McCord, a nephew, said his uncle recently suffered a nervous breakdown and was a victim of neuritis. McCord was a bachelor and lived at 719 Scott street.

CANNING STOP BY HOUSEWIVES TUMBLES SUGAR

SEATTLE, Wash., July 16.—Because housewives are refusing to buy their regular canning supplies is one reason for the declining price of sugar, according to F. H. Baxter, sugar expert for a Seattle commission house. Sugar came down a cent here today and other declines are expected.

Another factor causing a drop, according to Baxter, is that when Cuban growers combined and fixed a price of 24 cents for raw sugar, Atlantic coast refineries withdrew from the market. Then planters in Java, Central America, South America, and Straits Settlements, ordinarily not sugar exporters, became eager to get the attractive prices offered here. It is estimated 500,000 tons of raw sugar is on its way to America from these countries. Baxter expects much lower sugar but refused to estimate the probable price it will reach.

American Funeral in Japan for Local Lad

News has just been received from Japan by Mr. and Mrs. M. Larson of this city that their son, Ray, passed away on June 16, from an acute attack of pneumonia contracted while he was aboard the transport Thomas.

The American Methodist missionary at Nagasaki took charge of the funeral, burying him in the American cemetery there. Girls from the mission placed flowers upon his grave.

Ray Larson was a member of the June, 1919, graduating class of the Oakland technical high school, after which he entered the University of California. It was during the vacation period that he signed up for the transport Thomas for the trip and intended to return to college for the fall semester.

TAKEN WITH GIRL AFTER LONG HUNT

SAN JOSE, July 16.—Following a search which has extended to every part of the state and lasted during the last 20 days, Clyde Spinning, alias Clyde Bissel, alias W. P. Williams, charged with abducting the 12-year-old Elizabeth Magee of Los Angeles, has been arrested by Sheriff Lyle and Deputy Sheriff Ray Hicks at the home of his father, William Spinning, at Los Gatos. He is now a prisoner at the county jail here.

The girl he is charged with abducting, and who he has married since the flight from her home, was also found at the Spinning residence and was also taken into custody.

Sheriff Lyle said that the abduction has been filed against Spinning, among them being that he forced her to go into resorts of Los Angeles Chinatown and that he there took pictures of her.

He is also charged with writing unprintable letters to the child's father, telling him he had forced the girl into a life of shame and threatening the father's life if any action was taken against him.

Spinning today denied these latter charges, saying some "hop head" in Los Angeles had written the letters. The police, however, declare they are in his handwriting.

In his story told the sheriff here Spinning asserts that after leaving Los Angeles he and the girl went to Porterville, where he secured a position as linotype operator on a newspaper. He then read in the Los Angeles papers that the police were hunting for him, so he and the child went to Visalia, where they were married on June 23, the girl claiming to be 19 years of age.

Spinning had been a roomer at the home of the girl's parents for two years.

The officers in Los Angeles were notified of the arrest and a telegram was received saying a deputy sheriff would be sent for him and the girl immediately.

Father Is Killed, Daughter Sought

Oakland's police seek the daughter of J. J. Lindsey. Lindsey was killed in an automobile accident at Ely, Nev., July 3. The body has been held pending the efforts to find relatives. The Oakland police do not know the daughter's name, but it is stated she is married and has been living in Oakland.

AGNEW TO FILE APPEAL FOR JOB

The formal appeal of Inspector Lou Agnew of the plain clothes division of the Oakland police department to the civil service board from his dismissal Wednesday by Commissioner F. R. Morse because of the disappearance of a quantity of narcotics from the office of the captain of inspectors, will be submitted to the board at its meeting next Tuesday night. The case then will be set for hearing. This announcement was made today by Frank Colburn, secretary of the board, following the filing of the appeal yesterday.

William J. Hynes, former district attorney, and William H. Donahue, former superior judge, both of whom are the attorneys for the Civil Service Employees' association, will represent Agnew in the hearing of his appeal. It is rumored that Morse will be represented by a private attorney instead of City Attorney Hagan, as heretofore.

Agnew was dismissed yesterday when he received the formal notice of his discharge from Chief of Police J. Frank Lynch, in the presence of Commissioner Morse. Walter J. Peterson, deposed captain of inspectors, whose reinstatement was recently ordered in a decision of the district court of appeals, accompanied Agnew to the commissioner's office where the notification was received. Morse looked on as Peterson and Agnew read the document, but made no comment. Peterson was held jointly responsible with Agnew for the drug disappearance.

Morse held Peterson and Agnew responsible for the drug episode because of their alleged knowledge of the drug's loss. He has not yet made public his proof of the charge. Asked to reveal the facts developed in his investigation, Commissioner Morse refused yesterday to do so.

CABARET SINGER HELD IN MURDER

NEW YORK, July 16.—Miss Lorette Leroy, a cabaret singer, with her chauffeur and another man, were held for questioning today in the investigation into the murder of Alfredo Graziano, alias Mike McCarthy.

Miss Leroy drove to Bellevue hospital at 2 a. m. with the man's body in her automobile. At first she said she was driving through the street and saw a man lying on the sidewalk dying. Later she said she was driving in a restaurant with the man who she knew only as "Mike," when someone told him he was wanted outside.

A few minutes later he excused himself and went out. Miss Leroy said she heard a shot, ran out the door and found the man wounded.

Law Is Made Head of Street Sweeping

Harry V. Law, deputy city clerk and executive officer of the department, tendered his resignation to the city council today in order to accept an appointment to the position of superintendent of street sweeping, in the department of streets.

Law's resignation was accepted and E. W. Shaw was appointed his successor. The change became effective at noon.

Law's new position was created in the recent ordinance codifying all positions in the municipal service under one measure. Law held the place several years ago before the position was abolished during the regime of Commissioner W. J. Bacon in the street department.

REAL ESTATE DEALER IS OUT WITH THE FACTS

Says Tanlac Has Completely Restored His Health and Given Him Renewed Energy.

"I became very weak, lost my energy, and at times could hardly look after my business."

"I got a bottle of Tanlac soon after I heard of it, and the relief I got from the first bottle was so encouraging that I kept on taking it until I had finished four bottles, and my troubles had disappeared entirely."

"My appetite picked right up, and I could eat just anything and everything that was set before me without feeling a sign of indigestion. The nervousness left me completely and at night my sleep was sound and restful."

"I regained my lost weight and went after my business with renewed energy for I was feeling as strong and well as ever."

"A few days ago I had a touch of indigestion and a bottle of Tanlac at once, and although I have taken only a fourth of a bottle, I'm just about straight again."

"I don't know what it is but there's something about Tanlac that certainly does the work, and I'm more than glad to endorse it."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by the Owl Drug Company Stores—Advertisement.

Armenians Rushing to Colors of Greeks

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 16.—Eight thousand Armenian refugees, concentrated in Smyrna, have enlisted in the Greek army. Large numbers of Armenians are enlisting in Constantinople daily. The Turks have begun deportations of Armenians eastward from sections where the Armenians might aid the Greeks.

Reports say that Kiazim Kara Bekir, commanding the Nationalists in Erzerum, has begun a movement against Armenia, causing great uneasiness to Armenians, who fear massacres and deportations of the last four years are to be repeated. The Armenians are trying to obtain information as to when and how President Wilson will fix the boundaries of Armenia and also how the boundaries will be protected by the entente.

Horrors of Red Rule in Hungary Told by Woman

prisoners into Siberia where they suffered untold misery from cold, exposure and ill treatment. It is pitiful. They were liberated by the treaty of Brest-Litovsk but were sent back to Siberia when they had almost reached home when anarchy broke out in Russia.

HUNGARIAN QUALITIES
"At the close of the great war Hungary was probably in better condition than Austria and other central powers despite the fact that half a million of her men had been sent prisoners to Siberia and notwithstanding the way in which Hungarian manhood was recklessly sacrificed on the battlefield. The Hungarians are more like Americans than any other European race. They are alert, capable, brave and energetic in contrast to the Austrians, who are sleepy and submissive."

"A brief respite of peace under the 'Personal Union' in which autonomy was granted Hungary while at the same time she was ruled by the Austrian king, was broken by the Karolyi revolution and the declaration of the Hungarian independence. The revolution broke out under my husband in October, 1918, in Budapest when gendarmes shot down a mob that was moving on the palace. The mob dispersed and many wounded were sent to the hospital. Some were dead. Karolyi dismissed all the people and established order for a short time. But he was not strong enough and the Bela Kun, the Bolshevik, took over the government, again dismissed the people and robbery and anarchy reigned. The people suffered more from murders, starvation and miseries from the Red terror than they had during the whole war. My husband was condemned to death but as we were in Bern, Switzerland, he did not finish them."

ROMANIAN LOOTED
"Then the Romanians came down on a disarmed and helpless people looted cathedrals, schools, stores and homes. Everything from armory to locomotives to babies' nursing bottles were taken. The country was stripped of food and clothing. More than 17,760 cars of goods were stolen from Hungary by the Romanians. The English general in charge of the allied forces was ignored. General Bandholz in charge of the American military mission, rose over a museum in Hungary by the Romanians were looting, ordered them to desist and notified the Romanian general to leave Hungary. The Romanian general refused to leave and the 40,000 men had defeated the British commands turned tail and fled before the fearful power of the United States which has been magnified a thousand times in the eyes of Europeans since the great war."

"When the Romanians marched out of Budapest they entered Budapest at the head of a few thousand Hungarian troops and restored order. But even if permanent peace has been established in this stricken land, this in itself will not feed and clothe the thousands of orphans, the weakened men, women and children nor bring back automatically the poor little remnant of 60,000 war prisoners which are all that is left of the army which fought the war."

"As to the Swiss people, who have borne the burden of all Europe and whose brave little country has proved a spot of refuge for every nationality, I think they are wonderful. True food dealers and producers in that country made millions of dollars through enormous prices received for their products, yet I know that the great hotels there housed and fed thousands of refugees without cost. I know American women, married to Austrians and Germans, exiled in Switzerland and having lost all because of the breaking down of German exchange with the United States, who were kept for months in the hotels there as honored guests, although they never paid a cent. The Swiss Red Cross met every train of prisoners and fed them and gave them gifts of soap, chocolate and cigarettes."

Mrs. Ludwig landed in New York in April, having come directly from Switzerland, where her husband will remain actively engaged in Red Cross work.

Mexican Rail Men Declare Walkout

VERA CRUZ, Mex. July 16.—A strike was declared last night by all the personnel on the lines and in the shops of the Mexican railway which runs from Vera Cruz to Mexico City. The men are demanding a 100 per cent increase in wages and recognition of their union.

Famous Beauty Is Eloping Bride of Policeman

MRS. OSCAR PUTZKER, California beauty, widely known as the "Gibson Girl," who before her elopement yesterday with the Berkeley police sergeant was Miss Emily Messner of San Francisco.

BERKELEY, July 16.—ON their honeymoon today are Sergeant Oscar Putzker of the police department and his "Gibson Girl" bride, formerly Miss Emily Messner of San Francisco.

News of Putzker's elopement to San Jose yesterday with the San Francisco beauty reached his colleagues in the police department by means of a telegram to Chief August Vollmer. Putzker, on vacation leave, but failed to inform friends or relatives of his plans to have a wife accompany him.

Chosen by Charles Dana Gibson, several years ago the most perfect Oscar Putzker of California beauty. Miss Putzker posed for a series of drawings by the famous artist which won her fame throughout the country. She is the daughter of the Arthur Messners, 708 Grove street, San Francisco, who received a telegram yesterday also telling them of the marriage in the Garden City. The marriage is the culmination of a friendship of two years.

Putzker, who is the son of Professor Albin Putzker, professor emeritus at the University of California, has been a member of the police force for the past nine years.

WIVES' LEAGUE PLEDGES MILK AT 14 CENTS

ALAMEDA, July 16.—Alamedans are to have the opportunity of purchasing 14-cent milk one cent below the present prevailing price, according to the Housewives' League of this city, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Grace Hoffman.

Mrs. Hoffman announced the possibility of obtaining the cheaper milk soon at a meeting of the league yesterday in the Knights of Pythias hall, and she gave assurances that the quantity would be adequate to supply every member of the organization and others in addition.

Mrs. Hoffman will not as yet disclose the source of the milk supply, stating under present conditions she believes it best to keep it a secret. It is expected further plans of the league will be given out at the next meeting of the league.

Mrs. Bertha Rickoff, state agent for the Central Milk Producers' Association, was present at yesterday's meeting, and informed Mrs. May Larkin Marston, president of the league, that she had been detailed to attend the meeting to learn if Alameda planned to boycott milk. This she was assured would not be done, under present conditions. The Alameda league expects to come to an amicable arrangement with the producers soon.

Prunes, potatoes, eggs and a limited quantity of milk all were sold following yesterday's meeting at the wholesale price.

To demonstrate the feasibility of serving a luncheon for 25 cents the league will give one July 27 at the Knights of Pythias hall. The public is invited.

Hobson to Lecture On "World Destiny"

BERKELEY, July 16.—"America and the Destiny of the World" will be the subject of the lecture to be delivered in Berkeley at the Epworth Methodist Church tomorrow evening by Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson. Captain Hobson will devote part of his time to an explanation of the Harris bill, California's proposed state law to enforce the Eighteenth Amendment. The Harris Bill was introduced in the last legislature by Senator Harris, and was passed by both branches. A petition was then circulated calling for a referendum, thus bringing the law to the vote of the people at the coming November election.

NO AIR STUNTS ABOVE CITY, IS ALAMEDA ORDER

ALAMEDA, July 16.—Alameda aviators may be compelled to conform to the regulations of an air traffic ordinance. Complaints have reached the City Manager C. E. Hewes that numerous flyers with hangars on the marshes, hover over the city, performing stunts and scare people beneath.

City Manager Hewes yesterday informed Police Jacoby to tell the flyers to go elsewhere to do their tail spins. Jimmelman turns and other breath-taking feats.

VALUE OF BLOOD
LOST IN SMASHHow much is the blood that nourishes an attorney's brain worth?
That is a question Judge Harry W.
Pulcifer must decide.After a wordy battle of several hours between attorneys Emil Nus-baumer and F. G. Ostrander before Judge Pulcifer over an automobile accident suit in which Nusbaumer asks damages from his own wife, as well as from Ostrander's client, Judge Pulcifer announced the two attorneys held exactly the same view
--each thought the other's client entirely to blame."I will take the case under advisement," said Judge Pulcifer. "I am indebted to Mr. Nusbaumer for the enrichment of my vocabulary by the addition of the word 'causationetic.'" This referred to Nusbaumer's method of referring to the two women driving the cars which collided, his wife, Mrs. Fannie Nus-baumer, and Mrs. Emeline Ostrander, wife of W. W. Blair, assistant superintendent of street for Oakland.

INSURANCE AT STAKE

The fact that Nusbaumer, who filed a cross-complaint after being sued, together with Mrs. Nusbaumer, for damages by Mrs. Blair, asked for recompense from his own wife, if she should be found partly to blame, is explained by the fact that both machines were insured and the insurance company must pay the bill if she is assessed. The battle, therefore, is really one between the two insurance companies.The point at issue is concerned with the new law governing traffic, which says the person on the right has the right of way unless the other is nearer the point of intersection.
Mrs. Nusbaumer, with her husband as a "gratuitous passenger," was on the left, but claims to have been nearer the point of contact. Each wants $2500.

BRAIN SUFFERS, CLAIM

Nusbaumer's cross-complaint says a piece of glass was injected into his head, rupturing an artery, whereby much blood which should have been carried to his brain was spilled on the ground, as a result of which his brain was undernourished and impaired and incapable for more than a week. Nusbaumer also says he paid two eminent physicians, Drs.
O. D. Latham and C. A. Deary, the moderate fee of $300, made a present of $175 to his wife for repairs to the car, paid $75 hospital expenses, and "by reason of the pain and suffering caused by all the premises aforesaid including the separation of $175 from himself," he has been further damaged in the sum of $1,000, but waives all but $250.99.Nusbaumer asks the court to "approve and confirm the judgment of this defendant to eschew henceforth the use of automobiles and hence to relinquish his life and thus he will ever pray."The accident happened at Nineteenth and Harrison streets.Builder Sues for Profit On HousesClaiming an oral agreement made in April 1916, by which he was to receive half the net profits for building houses on a block of land in Oakland known as Braggs' subdivision, F. A. Muller has filed suit against Abe S. Cohn for $5000 and an accounting. Muller claims that Cohn, who purchased the property and advanced the construction of the houses has made a net profit of about $10,000, which he has refused to divide as agreed.Oakland Woman who proudly wears medal of St. Anna.Miss Jeanneatte Searight Saves Refugees From Bolsheviki

in Ural Relief.Decorated with the medal of St.
Anna, a Russian military order, Miss Jeanneatte Searight, heroine of the Urals, arrived aboard the China Mail Steamship Company's liner Nile and is today at her home at 450 East Fourteenth street.It was during the tumultuous times in the Urals, when the Bol-shevist red wave was sweeping the Russian and allied armies before it, that Miss Searight showed the heroism that won official recognition. She was in charge of American Red Cross work in the Urals, administering relief, especially among women and children.News came that the Reds were advancing. Miss Searight was informed that the Red Cross would withdraw at once. Resolutely the Oakland girl refused to obey the order until after days of work, more than 1000 Russian children were placed aboard refugee trains and taken from a district that subsequently was devastated by war and famine.Miss Searight has been away from home for the last 20 months. She was in Vladivostok at the time of the allied evacuation of the port and saw conditions during the subsequent Japanese occupation of the city which she pronounced atrocious.
The Red Cross headquarters were shelled by Japanese gunners. The Russians were treated with severity and so great was the destitution in which they were held by the men of the allied armies that it became an impossible task to do better.British Dominions

MORE IN SCHOOL
BONDS IS ASKEDThe Board of Supervisors will be asked by the Board of Education to sell an additional $3,000,000 of the recently voted $5,000,000 school bonds at once.At the request of its bond expenditure committee and the citizens' bond expenditure committee the board last night adopted recommendations for the further progress with the building program for Oakland's schools.The plan outlined to the school directors by Thomas Campbell, chief of construction, was for completion of the entire elementary school program, with the exception of five grammar schools of minor importance. At the same time construction of the new high and junior high schools will start.WHAT FUND WILL DO Campbell said the money would purchase sites, start construction of new buildings and build additions to present buildings. The whole program outlined is for three high schools and fifteen grammar schools.
The sub-committee on the sale of bonds, recommended that $250,000 be used for high schools and $750,000 for elementary schools.At the same time a report was submitted by the construction department showing the work to be accomplished by the new bond issues, and the work already done with the original issue of $3,150,000.
This included: Overhead expenses and expenses of construction department, architects and engineers for the completion of working plans and specifications, purchase of land for the Santa Fe and Fruitvale junior high schools, Fremont high school, Elmhurst junior high school, and the Bay, Dewey, Lakeview, Melrose Heights, Garfield, Hawthorne, Olive street, Perilla, Rockridge and Crocker Highlands schools.CONTRACTS AWARDED The sum also provided for the construction of additions to the Alameda avenue Santa Fe and Alameda schools, and the Fremont high school, and $40,000 toward additions to the Lockwood Junior high school.The board awarded contracts for $2,533,400 to the low bidders on five items of use equipment for the schools.
In connection with the reorganization of the business division of the schools, the board adopted a new classification of positions and salary schedules submitted by the Civil Service Board, covering the non-pedagogical work under the control of the department.Motorcycle Topples;
Two Riders InjuredTwo shipworkers today are recovering from injuries received when a motorcycle turned over at Sixteenth avenue and Foothill boulevard at 10 o'clock last night.
Roland Howard, 25, 183 B street,
Richmond, driver of the machine, received numerous cuts and bruises about the face and head, and John Anderson, 26, 1025 Twenty-fifth street, sustained a fracture of ribs on his left side. Both were treated at the emergency hospital and later were taken home.Dues of Yacht Club Raised $10 a MonthSAN FRANCISCO, July 16--Dues of the Indoor Yacht Club have been raised to $10 a month.Some of the old-timers no longer can attend because their wives won't let them. This has cut down the club's income. And Congressman Volstead is blamed. In days past the bar produced much revenue. The club was formed in 1904. Its present home is at Ellis and Powell streets.
